od, Ky., Dec. 24.—Hobart, the year-old son of Mr. H. Y. Hudson, while climbing a tree near home on Thursday of last week, a distance of about twenty feet had one of his legs broken in places. Mr. Hudson was in Hopkinsville delivering his tobacco, neighbors, however, quickly summoned Drs. Durham, of Era, and Ston, of Dawson, who set the bone.

Mr. Nelson McKnight happened a serious accident last Monday, which resulted in the loss of two fingers. He had a large saw log on a wagon which was being drawn up a steep hill by means of a block and chain, when, in some way, the log on his right hand became engaged in the tackle and his hand was drawn into the block and so he managed that the first two fingers had to be amputated. Dr. Durham performed the operation.

J. N. Murphy & Son, of Macedonia, having disposed of their stock of goods, have suspended business at that point. The postoffice, understand, will be moved to the care of Franklin & Co., about a mile from the present site.

Prof. Everett McKnight, a prominent teacher of this vicinity, died the residence of his cousin, Mr. E. McKnight, after an illness of two weeks of typhoid fever. He was a son of Mr. T. T. McKnight. He was about thirty years of age and unmarried. It is said that he was engaged to a young woman of the Daniel Boone neighborhood, who was at his bedside when he died. He was highly respected by all who knew him and he was sadly missed in North Christchurch.

YOUNG HERO.

A Typical American And "Son of His Father."

Mr. Paul Gilmore, who is to appear at Holland's Opera House Wednesday night, Dec. 29, will present "The Candidate," a play written especially for him by Owen Davis, who also furnished Mr. Gilmore with "At Yale," his biggest success up to this time. "The Candidate," is described as a comedy of Young America, which description also fitted "At Yale," the difference in the atmosphere of the two plays being that the former was of college life, while the new one takes the same sort of lively American youths a little further along on their careers, the hero being a dashing young "son of his father" who is just entering his career in politics. His experiences during the heated campaign depicted on the stage are mostly humorous, interspersed with some dramatic incidents, but it is purely a comedy, and does not take up any deep problem or present any political arguments, being designed only for the delectation of amusement-seeking theatergoers, and not at all intended for those who go to the theatre to study or be instructed.

DEVICES ARE SELECTED.

By Candidates For Congressional Nomination.

The three candidates for the Democratic nomination for Congress in this district have selected their devices to go on the ballot in the primary to be held February 2. Mr. Stanley will use a leaf of tobacco. Mr. Clements will use his picture and Judge Civen will also use a cut of himself.

The official call for the primary has been issued. The polls will be opened from 6 a. m. until 4 p. m. and all who affiliate with the Democratic party in good faith and pledge themselves to support the nominee will be allowed to vote. Should only one candidate put up the $1,200 entrance fee by January 18, the district committee will meet in Henderson on January 24 and declare the qualifying man the nominee.

The call states that the officers shall be equally divided and the candidates can have challengers and inspectors. Each candidate will have the right to furnish three men from each precinct for consideration by the committee. The lists thus selected by the candidates shall be submitted to the chairman of the committee. The list selected by the committee shall be published ten days before the election and after they are published will not be changed.—Owensboro Inquirer.

DANGER IN DELAY

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for Hopkinsville People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in this locality.

Aaron Koltinsky, Cottage street Princeton, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills gave me prompt relief from a bad attack of kidney trouble about two years ago. There were sharp twinges through my loins but I did not think the trouble was serious and believed that it would soon wear away. I grew worse, however, until I could hardly straighten after stooping and none of the remedies I tried brought me relief until Doan's Kidney Pills came to my attention. I procured this preparation and it quickly brought about a marked improvement. By the time I had taken the contents of one box I was entirely relieved. I do not hesitate to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as the best kidney remedy to be had. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan.

JAIL DELIVERY

Three Bad Negroes Break Out of County Jail.

Three negro prisoners in the county jail escaped Friday evening by sawing out one of the iron bars in the corridor and jumping a short distance to the ground. The prisoners had the run of the corridor in the cell room. Those who escaped were Ed Pendleton, who was given a life sentence for grand larceny (it being his third term) and who was given a new trial by the court; Sam Bowles, charged with grand larceny, and John Claybrooks, held for stealing a suitcase from a man at Crofton. He is the negro who made a desperate attempt to escape from Officer Jarred Renshaw.

All three of the men are tough characters and as they escaped at a time when the city was filled with Christmas shoppers, they disappeared in the crowds and have not been recaptured.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

A brilliant and beautiful event of Wednesday evening was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kyzer, of Rutherford, Tenn., in celebration of their twenty-fifth anniversary. The drawing-room where the guests were received was beautifully decorated in pink and white carnations, ferns and palms.

The hostess was charming in her wedding gown of brocade satin and real lace.

In the receiving line with the host and hostess were Mrs. Joseph Beazley, of Hopkinsville, and Miss Vennie Edwards, of Paducah. Both were handsomely gowned in black net over satin. Punch was served by Miss Kathleen Barton, whose gown was of pink crepe de chene with silver trimmings, and Miss Ruth Beazley, who wore lavender satin and gold bands.

Coffee and an elegant salad course was served by Miss Veta Tinkle, wearing white broadcloth with embroidered trimmings, and Miss Mary Beazley, of Hopkinsville, who wore a dainty lingerie frock. The decorations here were in red and white.

Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room, where the table was beautiful in its decorations of pink and white and the centerpiece was of lace over pink satin. The cake and ices carried out the color scheme and the cut glass dishes held pink and white heart-shaped mints.

Miss Maud Tinkle and Miss Lyda Crowell presided in the dining room, Miss Tinkle wearing white broadcloth with velvet bands and Miss Crowell's gown was crimson broadcloth embroidered.

An orchestra furnished music throughout the evening and many handsome gifts were received. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Harry Johnson, of Atlanta, Ga., who wore apricot satin and lace; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Elrod, of Trenton, Tenn.; Mrs. Elrod's gown being of pink marguerettes draped over silk; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Courtney. Mrs. Courtney wore black chiffon cloth embroidered.

Among the many handsome gowns worn by the guests, Mrs. C. B. Baird wore white embroidered net, over silk; Mrs. James Allen wore a gown of white broadcloth and embroidered bands; Mrs. J. M. Fletcher, of Humboldt, wore a gown of black lace over satin; Mrs. Luther Porter wore emerald satin and lace; Mrs. Emery Owen, of McKenzie, wore crimson broadcloth embroidered; Mrs. E. E. Vaughan, of Clinton, wore a beautiful ful gown of brown faille silk and lace.

Mrs. J. E. Kyzer has frequently visited this city as the guest of Mrs. Joseph Beazley, of East Seventh street, and has a great number of friends here.
